ZERO TOLERANCE VILLAGE ALLIANCE

PROJECT OBJECTIVES

➢ To enable behavioural change by building empowered and supportive environments in which victims of sexual, domestic and child-based violence, and PLWHA, feel secure enough to speak out and exercise their rights.

➢ To revive the spirit of “ubuntu,” community pride and solidarity by enabling and encouraging targeted communities to adopt the eradication of sexual, domestic and child-based violence, and stigmatisation, as a common goal.

NEXT STEPS

- Integration of both quantitative and qualitative findings into the ZTVA workshops to ensure best practices based upon the gathered evidence.
- Conduct further mapping in the region to support scale-up of ZTVA programming.
- Integrate novel data collection tools into existing programmes to inform government and NGO priorities.
- Monitor and sustain existing ZTVA villages through provision of support services.
- Promote and market ZTVA to government departments and stakeholders.
- Seek additional funding for ongoing support.
MAIN CHALLENGES

◆ FUNDING CONTINUITY
◆ HUMAN RESOURCE CONSTRAINTS
◆ TECHNOLOGY LIMITATIONS
◆ GEOGRAPHIC ACCESS TO MARGINALISED REGIONS
◆ DISSONANT IDEOLOGIES BETWEEN VILLAGE LEADERSHIP
◆ SUSTAINED PARTICIPATION OF CHIEFS
OPPORTUNITIES & FUTURE SUSTAINABILITY

CONCLUSIONS

- The key to success for ZTVA lies in the hands of stakeholders on the ground
- TVEP and ZTVA teams have made significant progress in assimilating contextually-appropriate interventions and services into existing population groups
- TVEP and ZTVA partnerships with police, government and like-minded CBOs has resulted in swift adoption by those who are engaged
- The ZTVA model is adaptable for use in other regions where traditional leadership is at odds with government mandates
- Gender equity and human rights must be addressed as one in the same
- Education is vital to the indoctrination of ZTVA ideologies into patriarchal societies
- IT CAN BE DONE!
