NGO ATINA

Program of comprehensive social inclusion
WHO we are?
NGO Atina was established in 2003 and for the last 20 years, remains dedicated to combating human trafficking and gender-based violence.

WHAT we do?
Conducting comprehensive long term program for victims of gender-based violence and human trafficking.
Tailor-made approach

From 2015 active in a field of support for migrant and refugee women and girls

Since the emergence of the refugee crisis in 2015, NGO Atina has become deeply involved in the issue, by providing ad hoc and long-term assistance to vulnerable refugees and migrants, particularly women and girls.

NGO Atina is services provider of assisted housing for victims of human trafficking, besides that, NGO Atina is providing shelter for victims of gender-based violence among refugee and migrant population.
Person-oriented approach

The assistance provided to human trafficking survivors is aimed at overcoming negative consequences of trafficking situation and enabling them to fully recover and re integrate into the society.

The provision of direct assistance to beneficiary groups is being maintained through Atina’s program of comprehensive social inclusion, which encompasses five units: Assisted housing, Field Support Team, Reintegration Centre, Economic empowerment, and Peer support/Advocacy group. In addition, Atina has extensive experience in building the capacities of other relevant actors in the field of combating human trafficking and SGBV, as well as in policy development in these areas.
What we are proud of
